

LOG MONITORING COMMANDS

1. dmesg - display kernel messages
2. journalctl - view systemd logs
3. journalctl -xe - display detailed system logs
4. tail file - display last lines of a file
5. tail -f file - monitor log file in real time
6. head file - display first lines of a file
7. less file - view file content page by page
8. grep pattern file - search text in a file
9. cat file - display entire file content
10. watch command - run command repeatedly and display output